

Infrared & Raman Users Group 'IRUG14' Conference

2nd Announcement & Call for Papers

Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands

Amersfoort, The Netherlands

May 27-29, 2020

The Infrared and Raman Users Group (IRUG) is pleased to announce the IRUG14 Conference to be held at the Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands, Amersfoort, The Netherlands on May 27-29, 2020. The conference will include oral and poster presentations addressing all aspects of the application of infrared and Raman spectroscopy for the study, documentation and protection of the world's cultural heritage.

Important dates:

Abstract Submission (500 words): October 15, 2019 – December 15, 2019

Registration: Full €275, Student €150

Conference: May 27-29, 2020

Information on abstract submission, online registration procedures, social events, accommodations, and transportation is forthcoming and will be published on the conference website.

Please address inquiries to: Suzan de Groot at IRUG14@cultureelerfgoed.nl

On behalf of the IRUG14 Organizing Committee and IRUG Board of Directors, we look forward to receiving your abstract and seeing you at the conference in May 2020.

Suzan de Groot
IRUG14 Organizer
Conservation Scientist
Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands

